

Call Bonney Lake Home!

Ten great reasons to include Bonney Lake in your home search...

View of Mt Rainier from Allan Yorke Park

#1 Low crime rate (per the WA Association of Sheriffs & Police Chiefs Annual Report).

#2 Home to excellent schools in the Sumner-Bonney Lake and White River School Districts (see greatschools.com).

#3 An array of housing options including lakeside, hillside, valley, hilltop, mountain views, forested, secluded, tract, and others—in many price categories.

#4 Gateway to Mount Rainier National Park and many outdoor recreational opportunities in the nearby rivers, lakes, and Cascade Mountains.

#5 With a population just over 20,500, Bonney Lake maintains a small town feel but is big enough to have most of the necessary amenities.

#6 Shop and dine locally at national chains and small businesses limiting trips into further and more crowded locations. Visit Shop Bonney Lake at www.citybonneylake.org/business to search the Bonney Lake business directory.

#7 Three lakes offer fishing, swimming, boating and other opportunities; parks, ball fields, sidewalks, and trails support a wide range of sports and an active lifestyle.

#8 Numerous community events, such as Tunes @ Tapps, Kids Club, and Bonney Lake Days bring the City together. Visit www.citybonneylake.org/events for a complete list!

#9 A committed City staff eager to keep your City clean, safe, and welcoming!

#10 Easy access to Seattle and Tacoma via State Route 410 or from the Bonney Lake Park & Ride Transit Center that connects to the Sounder Train.
