Application for
PLANNING PERMIT EXTENSION

Pursuant to Bonney Lake Municipal Code 14.90.090, all permits except 1) building permits and 2) any permits for which the development code (Title 14) establishes specific permit expiration, the following shall apply:

Permit applications not exempt shall expire one year after any application dormancy or hold status initiated by the applicant. "Dormancy or hold status" shall include periods during which the city waits for information it has requested of the applicant which is needed in order to process the application.

Approved permits not except shall expire two years after the date of issuance if substantial progress has not been made toward realizing the permitted use or project, or within five years if construction has not been completed.

The body charged with granting the permit may extend the date of permit expiration for one year upon request by the applicant prior to said permit's expiration.
