- B. Presentation: Parks and Ballfield Survey.

Amber Stanley addressed the Council regarding the parks and ballfield survey. Presented the results to a survey that volunteer participants had taken on recreation activities in the City. Ms. Stanley answered Council questions about the results and criteria for the survey. Council thanked Ms. Stanley for her presentation and hard work.

- C. Council Open Discussion:

Bonney Lake Buckley Against Drugs (BLBAD). Councilmember Watson updated the Council that the BLBAD group has been aggressively helping with the panhandling situation in the community. The group had reached out to Councilmember Watson last week about an individual that had overdosed in a parking lot and had kids at home. The individual wanted some help. The BLBAD group and Councilmember Watson found resources that could help the individual move in the right direction. There will be a silent protest by the BLBAD group by the ARCO island in Bonney Lake with flyers and a bull horn. Channel 7 will be coming out to broadcast the protest on December 16, 2018.

Bonney Lake Food Bank. Councilmember Evans informed Council about a concerned citizen that had emailed about the Bonney Lake Food Bank conditions regarding animal control and cleanliness. Mayor Johnson, Jr., and City Administrator Vodopich discussed how the City has been in contact with the operator of the Food Bank to discuss the cleanliness and pest control with him. He is correcting the issues and is staying in communication with the City on issues that come up.

Shoreline Master Plan Update. Councilmember Rackley discussed email from a resident concerning the Shoreline Master Plan Update. Councilmember Rackley asked Council if they could explain what the concerns were. Councilmember Swatman explained that next year the Shoreline Master Plan is getting updated and land owners will need to comply with any changes. Council discussed some of the regulations on the Shoreline Master Plan.

D. Review of Council Minutes: November 20, 2018 Workshop, and November 27, 2018 Council Meeting.
