III. AGENDA ITEMS:

A. Council Open Discussion:

Star Wars Race- Councilmember Watson attended the Star Wars race on Sunday May 5, 2019 at Allan Yorke Park. He said all tickets were sold out and there was a great turn out. The costumes were fun and he was impressed with how the race went.

Jet Ski Rentals- Councilmember Watson had talked with the Snack Shack owner at Allan Yorke Park on Sunday May 5, 2019. He was wondering how to be approved to rent out jet skis during the summer. Mayor Johnson said to have him contact Facilities & Special Project Manager Leaf for directions on what he needs for applying to be able to rent them out.

Water Levels- Councilmember Watson voiced concern with the heat this summer and how it will affect the water levels in the City. City Administrator Vodopich said that the City is watching the levels and so far the heat is not affecting the water supply.

Retail Sales Tax- Councilmember Watson reviewed the six year budget analysis that Chief Financial Officer Cherie Gibson had sent to Councilmembers. He wants to discuss with Chief Financial Officer Gibson about her predictions on if the decrease in revenue will continue or not.

Midtown Park- Councilmember Rackley reminded Council that Monday May 13, 2019 the clearing at Midtown Park begins.

Housing Forum- Councilmember Swatman attended the Housing Forum in Sumner. They discussed issues with land availability, developers, and other organizations. The forum was educational and he will be interested to see what happens in the future.

Pierce County Law Enforcement Memorial- Councilmember Evans attended with City Administrator Vodopich and Police Chief Jeter to the Pierce County Law Enforcement Memorial. He recommends others to go when they get a chance.

B. Review Of Council Minutes: April 16, 2019 City Council Workshop And April 23, 2019 City Council Meeting.

Councilmember Watson said that he reviewed the minutes of April 16, 2019 City Council Workshop, and April 23, 2019 City Council Meeting and had no corrections. The draft minutes were forwarded to the May 14, 2019 Meeting for approval.

C. Proclamation: National Police Week May 12th – May 18th, 2019 And Peace Officers' Memorial Day May 15th, 2019.

Mayor Johnson read the proclamation marking the week as National Police Week and the day as Peace Officers' Memorial Day.

D. Presentation: South Sound 911 Update.

Executive Director Andrew Neiditz, Deputy Director of Law Enforcement Services Mark Mears provided an overview of South Sound 911's to Council statistics of incoming calls, accomplishments, needs, and services for South Sound 911. They discussed the new building that South Sound 911 is getting ready to place out to bid and the governance transition proposal. They responded to Council questions about dispatch times, response rates, and operations procedures.
