

Meet Jakob Two Trees

Fashioned entirely out of recycled materials, Jakob and is a large-scale public art installation that tell a tale of protecting nature and honoring the land and waterways. Jakob stands around 14-feet tall, looking down at passersby who walk near him on the trail. He is the first troll to have a ponytail, with a band made by the Snoqualmie Tribe holding his hair in place. He wears a necklace of birdhouses over his fur, inviting forest creatures to come spend an afternoon with him.

Join the seniors on a second trip to see Jakob Two Trees in Issaquah! Our first trip has so many people that wanted to participate, we've added A second trip.

Friday, June 7th

10:00-2:00 pm

Cost: $10 for transportation

Join us for a gentle walk (1/4 of a mile) on a very smooth, level paved Walkway to where Jakob stands watch over the trail. Have you photo Take with him and then join the seniors for lunch on your own at a Nearby restaurant.
